EDUCATIONAL.

It was with considerable satisfaction we learned that Governor Seymour paid a visit to the Common School of this city on Monday. His Excellency cannot but have been struck with two palpable facts—the inadequacy of the building for even present wants, and the unsuitableness of its location, with a bog on the one side and an Indian encampment on the other. In fact it is disgraceful that the only means of ingress and egress is through an Indian rancho, redolent of salmon, and associated with all the usual accompaniments of filth and vermin. We have all along held that the selection of the lot and the purchase of the old cabin which stood upon it was injudicious. Of all things a school-house should be spacious and pleasantly situated. His Excellency's visit to the school is, doubtless, merely promissory to a compliance with the wishes of the public, as expressed at a meeting during his absence in the interior. With the additional grant of £50 the tuition fees, now so exorbitant as to shut out a considerable number of children, will be materially reduced, and the number of pupils commensurately augmented. Thus the present building, quite too small for those now in attendance, will be altogether insufficient. We would, therefore, take the liberty of urging upon His Excellency a larger and more extended view of the subject. To place a liberal education within the reach of all classes we hold to be one of the very first duties of Government. And the question is not so much how we shall regulate our public schools so as to meet the views of the more wealthy and fastidious portion of the community, as how we shall bring education within the reach of the masses. The former class can afford to send their children to private schools if they desire to keep them more select; but the latter need all the helps and inducements that the most liberal common school system can afford. While, therefore, it is desirable that the existing institution should be placed upon a broader and more thoroughly public basis, so as to increase, as far as may be, its efficiency and extend its usefulness, it is of even greater importance in the interests of education that a suitable site for a Central School should be obtained, and a large building erected, upon such a plan as to meet present wants and admit of extension to satisfy future demands. Education in any country is different from most other questions. Instead of requiring constant urging and pushing Government should take the lead, and by every legitimate means seek to foster and encourage a liberal education amongst all classes. This is pre-eminently the case in respect of a country like British Columbia. Parents who come out and settle in this Colony, in its earlier stages, have a strong claim for the education of their children. And we would not overlook the fact that the very class of colonists which will be most valuable is just that whose coming would be most induced by a knowledge of the existence of a liberal and efficient educational system in the country. Indeed we are aware that families have, in several instances, been induced to relinquish the idea of settling in British Columbia, solely on this ground. And, to be more local, several families have taken up their abode in Victoria instead of New Westminster, simply on account of the superiority of the educational facilities possessed by the former. These, then, are considerations of very great moment, and we respectfully invite the attention of His Excellency not only to the propriety of doing something towards relieving present necessity, but to the still greater work of inaugurating a national system of education, upon a broad, non-sectarian basis, making it accessible to every class and acceptable to every creed. Nothing short of this will satisfy the people, or give the Colony that character abroad which it must necessarily possess, if we would attract to our shores that class of immigration which it is most desirable to have.

ADVANTAGES OF EXPLORATION.

There is every prospect of this community shortly enjoying the substantial advantages of exploration. Although the information received on Monday led us into some trifling inaccuracies respecting the discovery of placer diggings, yet the facts, so far as the discovery of that class of diggings is concerned, are substantially correct. For a considerable distance above the quartz ledge first discovered on Seymour Creek the ground has been found to prospect well, both on the "bars" of the stream and, what is of far greater importance, upon the extensive "benches" which skirt its banks. It is true the locality cannot yet be said to be prospected; but we are assured by experienced miners, residents of this city, and in whose veracity as well as judgment we have implicit confidence, that, so far as they have tested it, they confidently believe the diggings will prove not only rich but sufficiently extensive to employ several thousand miners. For a distance of about 20 miles up the creek the face of the country undergoes very little variation, and everywhere fair surface prospects are obtained, sometimes a panful of dirt showing 20 to 30 small pieces of gold. Other quartz ledges have also been found, which are believed to be at least equally rich with that first discovered. It has often been matter of surprise to us that no effort should be made to look for minerals in our more immediate vicinity. So infatuated have people been with the rich but distant Cariboo diggings that everything else appears to have been forgotten. It needs no labored argument on our part to show how much more beneficial the working of mines close by would prove to the people of New Westminster. Diggings within four hours' walk of this city, if only rich enough to pay reasonable wages, would confer the greatest benefit upon local trade. Provisions could be supplied at prices only a shade over what they sell at here, so that miners would be able to live on from 50c. to 75c. a day, and would, consequently, work four or five dollar diggings with a fair profit. We hope that at least enough has already been discovered to lead to a thorough prospecting of the creek, both for quartz and placer diggings; and we are glad, therefore, to hear of the readiness manifested by His Excellency to second private effort in every way within his power.

Since writing the above we are gratified to learn that a party was sent out by the Governor on Thursday for the purpose of cutting a trail up the valley of Seymour Creek, and we understand His Excellency contemplates paying a visit to the diggings in the course of a few days. The Discovery Company go out to-day with the necessary appliances for building a comfortable house, and they will set about opening the quartz lode while, at the same time, the prospecting of the bars and benches of the stream will be gone on with.

NOTICE TO MARINERS!

ENTERING FRASER RIVER.

BEACONS (formed with clusters of piles) having been constructed on the Fraser River Sands, the following sailing directions are published for general information:

On the South Sand there are 3 Beacons. On the North Sand there are 5 Beacons. Numbered consecutively from 1 to 8.
No. 1, South Sand Head, placed in 7 feet low water, a cable W.N.W. of Buoy distinguished by a pole elevated 20 feet above the piles on which is fixed a large Cask, the pole, cask and one pile painted RED.
No. 2, North Sand Head, a cable to the West of Buoy, placed in 5 feet at low water, distinguished by a large Diamond, formed with boards, elevated on a pole 20 feet above the piles. This Beacon is all BLACK.
No. 3, North Sand, about half the distance between Chequered and Black Buoy, distinguished by White and Black horizontal stripes, placed in 6 feet at low water.
No. 4, North Sand, nearly abreast of Black Top Buoy, is a Black Top Beacon, 1 cable distant, placed in 5 feet at low water. The top being a Black triangle, formed with broad slats on a White pole, elevated 16 feet above the piles, which are whitewashed.
No. 5, North Sand, on the Spit, 1 cable S.W. of Red Top Buoy, is a Red Top Beacon, which is placed in 5 feet at low water, distinguished by a large Cask, painted RED, elevated on a White pole, 10 feet above the piles, the upper part of the piles being whitewashed.
No. 6, North Sand, 1 cable distant, N.W. of Buoy, distinguished by a large triangle, the apex of which is on the lower part of the pole, and formed with White boards, elevated 15 feet above the piles. This Beacon is all WHITE, and makes a conspicuous object either for entering or leaving the river.
No. 7, South Sand, is a BLACK Beacon, placed in 6 feet at low water, having only a St. Andrews Cross, elevated on a pole 10 feet above the piles.
No. 8, South Sand, about a cable length from No. 7, placed in 1 foot at low water, is a WHITE Beacon, formed with a St. Andrews Cross, as above. As these Beacons, Nos. 7 and 8, are intended to lead Vessels of large draught over the Bar in the deepest water, they are hereafter alluded to as Beacons.

All Buoys and Beacons on the North side of the Channel are to be passed on the Port hand.
The instructions issued by Captain Richards, R. N., in the V. I. and B. C. Pilot, are still applicable for entering Fraser River. The Beacons constructed on the Sands, indicating the locality of the Buoy, remove a great difficulty hitherto experienced by navigators in distinguishing the several Buoys.
For Vessels of large draught the Beacons will be found invaluable, as by taking care to port sufficiently soon, so as to cross when in a line, they will lead over the Bar carrying from 19 to 22 feet of HIGH WATER (in all other parts of the Channel much deeper water will be found). After the Red Top Beacon is brought in a line with the White Beacon, the Buoy may be with safety rounded; then steer in direction for the White Buoy and Beacon, and from thence to Garry Point.

Bend tenderly, prayerfully,
O'er her bed,
Smooth down the brown locks
And lift up her head;
List to her whispers—
She'll soon be dead.
Bend mournfully, tearfully
O'er her bier;
All your earth-treasures
Are lying here.
The Lord be your helper—
The world is drear.
Lift your eyes hopefully
To the blue sky;
See you not Annie,
Happy on high?
Safe with her Saviour
No more to die.

From the fresh sod;
Know that the sorrow-path

THE DUKE OF BRUNSWICK AGAIN.—The Duke of Brunswick, who for years has occupied in this city a great, big, ugly house, which he makes uglier by having it painted from top to bottom in some glaring colour or other—green, red, or blue—and which is defended by locks, bolts, and bars, as if it were a prison, saying nothing of alarm bells set in motion by secret springs in such a manner that a stranger, not knowing how to direct his steps, creates a tremendous clatter—this duke is at last about to fulfil his long-announced design of leaving Paris definitively, and of taking up his residence in Holland. He would have gone before this if he could have got a purchaser for his hideous mansion—a mansion, by the way, which, sovereign prince though he be, scarcely anybody has ever entered as a visitor. He of course takes with him his diamonds, which are worth millions; his wigs, which are as black as jet; and his rouge, which is the reddest to be found anywhere, as all Parisians who have seen his cheeks gleaming on the boulevards can testify. The reason why he quits Paris, albeit to a man in his position it must be the pleasantest, or at all events the least disagreeable, town to live in of all Europe, is one which shows his character in a disagreeable light. He has, it appears, an illegitimate daughter of English birth, to whom he gave an excellent education, and for whom he undertook to provide in a manner suitable to his rank. But after she had grown to woman's estate she offended him by marrying a French gentleman of a pedigree much larger than his rent-roll; and she further offended him by quitting the Protestant for the Catholic religion. He accordingly stopped her supplies. She bore the deprivation as well as she could for a time, but regard for her children made her entreat him to give her an annual allowance. He refused to give her one farthing. She brought an action against him. He employed all the means which wealth allowed, to delay a definite decision on the writ, but the time approaches in which it must be given, and he sees that it will go against him. He, however, is determined not to pay, and so he breaks up his establishment in France, sells his house and other real property, and goes away. The judgment which his unfortunate daughter may get will not be worth the paper on which it is written—he will leave nothing to seize.—Paris Letter.

A CHINESE EXECUTION.—Yesterday morning, May 17, A. King met his fate for the murder of Mr. Dore. The number of Europeans, English as well as others, who were present showed that the circumstances attending this murder were not forgotten; but there was not the vast multitude which at home usually characterise a "public hanging." In the centre of a wide plot of land a tent was standing, covered with red serge. This was set apart for the official magistrate. Punctual to a minute, the mandarins, prison officials, and others in authority arrived. The prisoner was marched, heavily ironed, between two police-constables and placed before the inspecting magistrate. His appearance excited shouts of ironical applause from the natives, joined in, we regret to add, by many of the Europeans present. As soon as all was ready, and an address spoken to the prisoner by one of the acting mandarins, he at once went on his knees. The head representative of the execution guild then rode up, and raising his sword as the signal, the executioner's knife fell, and all was over. The headman at once cut severed the head from the body. It fell forward many feet. The blood spurted out, the muscles of the once animate body quivered and collapsed, and A. King lay headless and a corpse. The blow was clean and before many of the spectators were aware, the man's head was off. There was a general question, "When will it begin?" The time was kept to a minute. At 10 precisely the man's head was off; and after duly looking at the body, and seeing the mandarin's knife at the feet, the officials departed.—Shanghai Recorder.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

All Disorders affecting the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

These Pills can be confidently recommended as the most simple and certain remedy for indigestion, flatulency, acidity, heartburn, colic, constipation, and all the many maladies resulting from disordered stomach or bowels. In all diseases it is of primary importance to set the stomach right. These Pills are purifiers, alteratives, and strengtheners of the stomach. They may be taken under any circumstances. Though powerfully tonic, and satisfactorily aperient, they are mild in their operation, and beneficial to the whole system.

Weakness and Debility, Nervous Irritability.

The wholesale effect exercised by these admirable Pills over the blood and fluids generally is like a charm in dispelling low spirits, and restoring cheerfulness. Their general aperient qualities well fit them for a domestic medicine, particularly for females of all ages and periods of life. They remove all disordered humors, purify the system, and regulate every function of the body, giving wonderful tone and energy to weak and debilitated persons, while they brace and strengthen the nervous system in a most extraordinary manner.

To Regain Health, Strength and Vigour.

Whenever persons find themselves in that state termed a "little out of health," and there are so many causes at work to shorten life, it is necessary that Holloway's Pills, the finest purifier of the blood ever known, should be at once taken, as they not only rid the solids and fluids of all morbid matters, but regulate all disordered actions, and strengthen the frame in a most extraordinary manner.

Old Coughs, Colds and Asthmatical Affections.

These Pills, assisted in their action by rubbing Holloway's Ointment very effectively twice a day upon the throat and chest, and keeping those parts covered with the preparation, will be found the most effectual remedy for asthma, coughs, colds, bronchitis, and influenza. These remedies tranquillize the hurried breathing, soothe the irritated air-tubes, and assist in discharging the phlegm which stops up the air-passages. This treatment has proved wonderfully efficient in not only curing old settled colds, but asthma of many years standing, and even when patients who were in bed a state as not able to lie down on their beds lest they be choked with phlegm.

Derangement and Distention of the Bowels, Flatulency, Diarrhea and Dysentery.

Any symptoms of the above complaints should be immediately met by appropriate doses of these Pills, according to the printed directions; delay may be followed by disastrous consequences. These Pills are a certain remedy for all the ailments of the alimentary canal, they secure the thorough digestion of the food, and act most kindly on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys. As a household medicine they are unrivalled, and should always be at hand.

Very Important, of Costiveness Beware.

Rarely but little notice is taken of costiveness, yet, at certain periods, it is a sure sign that danger is near. All who are seized with apoplexy and paralysis, have previously suffered from costiveness. In the former case the blood rises to the head, a small vein is ruptured, the brain, and we know the result. Let wives counsel their husbands, and husbands their wives, never to go to bed a second night, if the bowels have not been properly moved during the day, particularly if they feel heavy and drowsy. A few gentle doses of these fine Pills will regulate the circulation of the blood, and all dangerous symptoms.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:—

Ague	Female Irregularities	Retention of Urine
Asthma	Fever of all kinds	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Bilious Complaints	Fits	Sore Throat
Blotches on the skin	Gout	Stone and Gravel

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts and Old Wounds.

No description of wound, sore, or ulcer can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst cases readily assume a healthy appearance, and over this medicament is applied; sound flesh springs up from the bottom of the wound, inflammation of the surrounding skin is arrested, and a complete and permanent cure quickly follows the use of the Ointment.
Files, Fistulas and Internal Inflammation.

These distressing and weakening diseases may with certainty be cured by the sufferers themselves, if they will use Holloway's Ointment, and closely attend to the printed instructions. It should be well rubbed upon the neighboring parts, when all dangerous matter will be removed. A poultice of bread and water may sometimes be applied at bed time with advantage; and scrupulous cleanliness must be observed. If the patient reads this paragraph will bring it under the notice of such of their acquaintances whom it may concern, they will render a service that will never be forgotten, as a cure is certain.

Rheumatism, Gout & Neuralgia.

Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subduing pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously they drive all inflammation and depression from the system, subside and remove all enlargement of the joints, and leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted. A cure may always be effected, even under the worst circumstances, if the use of these medicines be persevered in.

Eruptions, Scald Head, Ringworm & other Skin Diseases.

After fomentation with warm water, utmost relief and speediest cure can be readily obtained in all complaints affecting the skin and joints, by the simultaneous use of the Ointment and Pills. But it must be remembered that nearly all skin diseases indicate the depurification of the blood and derangement of the liver and stomach, consequently, in many cases, time is required to purify the blood, which will be effected by a judicious use of the Pills. The general health will be readily improved, although the eruption may be driven out more freely than before, and which should not be promoted; perseverance is necessary.

Sore Throats, Diphtheria, Quinsy, Mumps & all other Derangements of the Throat.

On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointment should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as salt is forced into meat, this course will at once remove inflammation and elevation. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions.

Scrofula or King's Evil and Swelling of the Glands.

This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of purifying the blood and strengthening the system render them more suitable than any other remedy for all complaints of a scrofulous nature. As the blood is impure the liver, stomach and bowels, being much deranged, require purifying medicine to bring about a cure.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:—

Bad Legs.	Chapped Hands.	Scalds.
Bad Breasts.	Contracted and Stiff Joints.	Sore Nipples.
Burns.	Elephantiasis.	Sore Throats.
Banions.	Flatulency.	Skin Diseases.
Bite of Mosquitoes and Sand Flies.	Gout.	Scurvy.
Coco-bay.	Glandular Swellings.	Sore-heads.
Chiefo-foot.	Hings.	Tumors.
Corns (soft).	Lumbago.	Ulcers.
Cancers.	Piles.	Wounds.
Chilblains.	Rheumatism.	Yaws.
